BC Games Opens Exhibit at the BC Sports Hall of Fame and Museum
Building Communities...
Celebrating the BC Winter and BC Summer Games

The BC Games Society is officially opening a new exhibit that celebrates the 28-year history of the BC Summer Games and BC Winter Games in the province.

The Games exhibit at the BC Sports Hall of Fame is located at BC Place Stadium in Vancouver. Some of those in attendance for welcoming remarks will be former Premier William R. Bennett and Minister of Tourism, Sport and the Arts, Stan Hagen. BC Games alumni Kirsten Sweetland, this year's 2006 World Junior Triathlon Champion, will also provide her comments and experiences as a BC Summer Games athlete.
